

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

MASTER SERGEANT SARAH E. CORONA

MSgt Sarah Corona is the First Sergeant at Headquarters Readiness and Integration Organization, Buckley Space Force Base, Colorado. She serves as the extension of the commander's authority; the communication link between commander, unit members, and support agencies. MSgt Corona is charged with the duty to minimize negative impacts and effects on the mission, unit, cohesion, readiness, and morale.

Sergeant Corona enlisted in the Air Force in September 2009. After basic training and completing the Materiel Management technical training in January 2010, she held a variety of different positions, to include Materiel Control liaison, Inspection Supervisor for Bear Base, and a Postal Clerk Supervisor. After serving over seven years of active duty, she transitioned to the Air Force Reserves, serving two years as a traditional reservist, and since 2019 as an Active Guard Reserve Airman. MSgt Corona has deployed in support of Operation INHERENT RESOLVE and SPARTAN SHIELD.

Prior to her current position, the master sergeant was the Logistics Flight Superintendent for the 560th RED HORSE Squadron, Joint Base Charleston, South Carolina.
