MEMORANDUM FOR AFRC COMMANDERS

FROM: HQ AFRC/A1K
170 Page Road, Bldg 211
Robins AFB GA 31098-1635

SUBJECT: FY21 Seasoning Training Program (STP) Guidance

1. STP continues to be a critical tool in developing our Airmen and maintaining high readiness levels. In accordance with current program guidance, the approved FY21 STP Eligibility Listing will be effective for use on 1 Oct 20. This listing will be updated and distributed under separate cover as approved training plans are received and authorized training days established.
2. The tours within STP are limited up to a maximum of 139 days (as determined by the HQ AFRC Functional Manager). Any training in excess of 139 days will require use of distributed wing discretionary funding. These local tours are established by requirement and locally managed.
3. The intent of STP is to build a ready force through specific core task training. Appropriate monitoring and documentation of training progression is required. Orders will be curtailed in instances where members complete core tasks in advance of their STP tour end date.
4. The HQ AFRC POC for STP is SMSgt Julie Tinsley, HQ AFRC/AIKI, DSN 497-0748.

FY21 SEASONING TRAINING PROGRAM (STP) APPLICATION PROCESS

1. FY20 Carryover: The Coronavirus Disease – 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic severely impacted Reservists' ability to participate in STP. Therefore, the AFRC/CC approved a waiver enabling Airmen (whose STP eligibility window expired or will expire after 28 Feb 20 and before 1 Dec 20) to have an order end date as late as 30 Nov 20. The FY20 STP listing will remain valid through 30 Nov 20 for these applications.
2. The FY21 STP application process has been revised to include additional command directorate and MAJCOM Functional Manager (MFM) involvement in the wellness of training. These applications will be considered by the MFM prior to approval. Therefore, plan for a minimum of three (3) weeks for coordination prior to the tour start. This new process will remain under review for additional automation and efficiencies to expedite processing timelines.
3. Upon completion of the MOU, the Wing Training Office will complete the below information and forward applications to HQ AFRC/A1KI at afrc.a1.kki@us.af.mil. Emails that do not contain the following information will be returned:
